SUBJECT: EXBS: TAIWAN MONTHLY REPORTING CABLE - SEPTEMBER 2009

II. BROAD ITEMS OF INTEREST TO ADVISORS AND AGENCY MANAGERS:

(SBU) During the week of September 7, the Advisor accompanied five (5) Taiwan officials to Washington, DC, for export control meetings. The delegation met with the Departments of Commerce, Homeland Security (CBP), Justice, and State. The meetings at Commerce were to review U.S. export control rules for dual-use items. Since Taiwan is planning to organize a seminar on Export Administration Regulations, the meetings were good introductions to U.S. rules on dual-use export controls. The meetings at DHS and Justice were to review upcoming International Air Interdiction Training and Nonproliferation Exchange for Prosecutors and Investigators, respectively. The meetings at State were to brief Taiwan officials on the International Export Control Conference held in Istanbul, Turkey, in June 2009, and to review bilateral nonproliferation policy issues.
